

The Barnwell Anderson Chapter at Jacksonville College was named in honor of a beloved former professor. Although he passed away this year, our chapter is committed to continue his legacy. The students and sponsors participated in the following activities:

1. Attended the Spring Conference in Austin and presented our chapter report.
2. Students and sponsors toured the capitol building, Bob Bullock Museum, and Treaty Oak.
3. Students submitted papers to Caldwell Memorial Writing Contest.
4. Students participated in East Texas Scavenger Hunt prepared by Brett Eckles. Teams of students visited various Historic sites within driving distance of campus. The winners were recognized at chapel service.
5. Sponsored essay contest over Women's Suffrage in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the 19th amendment. The contest was open to students in grades 3-12 and cash prizes were awarded. Webb Society members served as judges.
6. Visited Killough Monument and discussed the need to cooperate with Cherokee County Historical Commission and Killough Family Association for the education of the significance of the site and need of maintenance.
7. Sponsored the Manley Lecture. Webb members served as ushers. Webb Society hosted lunch for the speaker and community members.
8. Sponsored special lecture from U.S. Representative Louis Gohmert.
9. Webb Society members created and distributed Valentines for children, senior citizens, and veterans.
10. Our chapter promoted Constitution Day and Veterans Day.
11. Our chapter prepared a video over the Killough Massacre for the Virtual Fall Conference.
12. Students participated in Reacting to the Past game over Texas annexation.
